JUST BEFORE THE FIRE

When the Turkish cavalry came patrolling down the quayside into Smyrna, the woman on the right started flag waving. Little did she dream that her home would soon be in flames. Perhaps she felt secure in the presence of allied warships anchored in the harbor. This is one of the latest photos taken of Smyrna before the great fire.

Stage Set For Tobacco Sales By 2 Methods

Several Loads of Tobacco Already Here—Pool Organization and Auction
Men Ready for Launching of Season.

Several loads of tobacco had been received in the various Danville Warehouses this forenoon preparatory to the opening of the market tomorrow morning at nine o'clock when auction sales will begin, also deliveries to the Co-Operative Marketing Association. Indications this afternoon were that the sales probably would not be so heavy as was anticipated. One reason is that there has been no season recently and another is that the growers generally may feel inclined to fight shy of offering their tobacco on the opening day. It is expected, however, that there will be an unusually large crowd and to get some idea as to prices. Many farmers anticipating this crowd felt it prudent to delay selling, realizing that the floors would be crowded and tobacco probably extensively trampled over and damaged.

A meeting of the Danville Tobacco Association was held this morning for the purpose of acting on a resolution introduced by J. H. Wilson that the rate of selling tobacco be reduced from 250 to 240 piles per hour. Mr. Wilson said that he thought it was in the best interest of the farmers to sell the tobacco more slowly and that this was possible under the quadruple sale plan. There was a good deal of opposition to this and the view prevailed in the trade that tobacco sells better at the more rapid clip than at the slower gait. The resolution failed to carry.

The Co-Operative Marketing Association is ready to put its method of sale into operation tomorrow. Eleven clerks are on hand to work at Producers and Farmers warehouses which have been leased. A visit to one of these warehouses this morning found the clerical staffs ready to begin work tomorrow with the prices of the various grades ready to be set out on the walls of the warehouses first thing tomorrow. It is reported that the prices for the various grades will be somewhat higher than those obtaining from the same grades on the other markets in North and South Carolina and one of the officials claims that the cash advance to the grower will be one-half the market value of his offerings.

Officials of the organization expected to have some tobacco on hand tomorrow but are not looking for any large deliveries on the opening day.

Tobacco men who viewed the offerings brought here today appeared to be pleased with them and said that it appeared well. The general impression is that the crop will have good color and will be heavier than what was first anticipated.

As to the size of tomorrow's sales nobody could undertake an accurate forecast. It was anticipated that at dusk tonight tobacco would be arriving in fair quantity and some looked for the disposal of half a million pounds here tomorrow.

Dice Game Was Too Engrossing

How police officers in full uniform and bulletins in hand, stood in the room with two gamblers early Sunday morning, and the latter were unaware that the bluecoats were there, was revealed this morning. The officers stood in the room, an ordinary living room for several minutes before they made their presence known and arrested Albert Curry and J. H. Boulton for gambling. The men were fined $5 and costs each in the police court this morning.

Police Officers E. G. Towell, W. C. Talley and S. M. Heffinger were in the vicinity of Monroe street early Sunday morning about 2:30 o'clock. They noticed a light in the second floor of a boarding house. They then looked closer and saw two men rolling dice and heard familiar sayings which attend a dice game. Finding the place open the officers walked in, went up a flight of steps and tipped into the room in which the two men were playing. There they stood for fully two minutes and the men continued the game. One of them was rolling the bones in all earnestness and seemed outdone because he could not make his point. When the officers had seen and heard all they wanted they made their presence known. "Well, I'll be d—," one of them remarked, as both looked around with astonishment.

Vulgarity

ALBION, Mich., Oct. 1.—Declaring the public use of tobacco in any form "is as vulgar as it would be to walk down the street eating a piece of pie," Dr. Samuel Dickie, president emeritus of Albion College, has issued instructions to college students "to do their smoking in a cowshed."

"If you must smoke do it in the cowshed," the educator's instructions read. "Smoking is an infringement on the rights of other persons. Every one has a right to clean, wholesome

Danville Fair Will Open One Week Tomorrow

One week from tomorrow will see the opening of Danville's annual agricultural fair which gives promise of being a highly successful undertaking. The Fair Association officials have sought this year to improve the event not only in the quality of the free attractions and the shows which comprise the fair, but have also made a special appeal for the showing of agricultural exhibits. According to the officials of the Association, more money has been spent on the event this year than ever before, the purpose being to include new features and keep fully abreast with the times.

Workmen have been engaged preparing the exhibition buildings for some days and the grounds are being put in shape for their use during the four days of next week. Towards the end of this week the grounds will become increasingly active but the placing of exhibitions will not begin probably until Monday.

SOUTHERN RAISES FREIGHT EMBARGOS

The Southern Railway System today cancelled all its outstanding freight embargoes and announced that it is now clear of connection and prepared to handle all business to points on its lines and including points reached via domestic yards, Virginia, and the Ohio river gateway. Traffic will be accepted from shippers and connections for all destinations subject only to outstanding contracts for connecting lines.

Special Term Of Circuit Court Is Set For Saturday

Judge Turner Clement of the Circuit court has issued an order convening a special term of court in Danville next Saturday at which time he will make formal his appointment of Mrs. W. R. Harris as judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court in Danville. The appointment could not be made in vacation and so the special term was rendered necessary.

Mrs. Harris will enter upon her duties without further delay as a number of cases are docketed for trial some of these having been pending for several weeks.

Bullets Fly On Bellevue Hill

A great deal of excitement took place on Bellevue Hill yesterday morning during a shooting affray in which many shots were fired. All persons nearby, however, managed to reach safe quarters with the exception of Dick Clements, negro, who was shot in the hand by Joe Hughes, also colored.

The shooting occurred about 11 o'clock. No one seems to be able to give a lucid account of what actually led up to the trouble. From information available, a large crowd of negroes were congregated at a certain point and some of them were "feeling high" from the effects of drinking too much moonshine. An argument finally arose, one word brought on another and it was but a few minutes before many pistols were brought into play and quite a number of shots fired. Negroes scattered in all directions—those who had no weapons heading for safe territory. Despite the large number of shots fired and the fact that bullets were flying thick and fast, Clements was the only person to be injured, so far as known, and his wound was a slight one in the hand.

Hughes was later arrested by the School Board authorities and lodged in jail. Other arrests may follow.

POWELL-TAYLOR

Saturday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock Miss Genevieve Virginia Taylor was quietly married to Hugh Henry Powell, by Rev. R. G. McLean, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Chatham, Va., in the presence of a few close relatives.

They were accompanied by Miss Claudia Allison Taylor, her sister and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. White.

The bride is a resident of this city and a cultured young lady of many admirable traits. The groom is a master of mechanics and is connected with Morris & Eason Co., Washington, D. C., where he has won a high reputation in his capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell left Sunday morning for their home, Delray, Va.

Slemp Seems Sure About the Ninth

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
(Special to The Bee.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—Upon his return to Washington today after a week spent in going through the Ninth district, Congressman C. Bascom Slemp, who will voluntarily retire from Congress next March, predicted another certain victory for the Republicans in the Ninth in November.

He criticized George Peery, the Democratic candidate, for failing to make one helpful suggestion throughout his six months of campaigning, and declared Peery might just as well choose now a place in the cemetery of defeated Democratic candidates for Congress from the Ninth district.

"I have been to many places in the Ninth district," said Mr. Slemp, "and I am perfectly sure that the tide is turning towards Mr. Bascom. The Republican candidate for Congress. That is what is happening all over the United States at this time. It is a just rebuke to the character of campaign the Democrats have been carrying on. They offer no helpful suggestion of any kind."

"Mr. Peery, a candidate now for over six months has made absolutely no suggestion of any kind helpful to anyone, but contented himself with saying that last year conditions were not good. Advancing prosperity is sweeping that argument away and Mr. Peery might just as well get ready his place in the cemetery along with the rest of the unduly ambitious Democrats for Congress from the Ninth."

Negro Dropped Wood and Fled

A demonstration of speed was given three police officers early Sunday morning when they approached a negro, who without an apparent cause, fled as fast as his feet would carry him, leaving a cloud of dust behind.

Sergeant H. T. Haraway and Patrolmen F. G. Towell and S. M. Heffinger were patrolling a section at the corner of South Main and Watson streets. The officers caught sight of the negro along with the rest of the unduly ambitious Democrats for Congress from the Ninth.

The negro, who was carrying a load of wood, both arms being full, and the negro also caught sight of a crowd of officers, with badges glittering. The bluecoats called to him to halt but whether the man misunderstood their shouts or otherwise, he let go the load of wood, grabbed his hat in hand and down the embankment across Brucetown he fled. In less than five minutes later, it appeared as though every dog on Poorhouse Hill had been aroused and it was surmised that the commotion was caused by his action showed a guilty conscience and the officers considered they had good reason to believe some one would be had in the end.

Man Shot Dead, Wife Wounded By Neighbor

Woman Accuses Former Embassy Employee As Assailant—Tragedy Occurs in Front of Home.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—One man is dead and his wife is in Emergency Hospital suffering from four bullet wounds, following an attack by a neighbor, the culmination of a quarrel of several months.

James A. Curran, 32 year old, former man of construction for the office of Public Buildings and Grounds, is dead.

Mrs. Anna Curran, 25 year old, his wife, is in the hospital, wounded by four shots, and is in a critical condition.

Joseph Tighe, recently employed by the Japanese Embassy, in the office of the military attaché, is named by Mrs. Curran as the assailant. Tighe has not been apprehended.

The shooting occurred about 7 o'clock last night in front of the Curran home, on Rock Creek Road, just off Broad Branch road. This is about a half mile east of Connecticut avenue and a mile and a half inside the District line. Just off Rock Creek Park.

Ranking of the Curran door as Tighe was passing the home led to the shooting, Mrs. Curran told police.

Mrs. Curran said she and her husband were in the road in front of their home, working on their automobile when Tighe, a neighbor, passed. Tighe was taking John Barnes, 25 year old, a visitor at the Jesse L. Evans home nearby, to his home.

On Tighe's return, according to Mrs. Curran, the dog barked and Tighe went to the car to call back the dog. She said Tighe opened fire. The first shot struck Mrs. Curran, who was between her husband and the assailant. Tighe, however, as she told police, let go the remaining shots in his revolver, one of which struck Curran just above the heart. Three other shots hit her.

Curran, when hit, ran down the road calling for help, she said. She followed and Tighe fled in the opposite direction, up the hill and toward his home, taking to the deep woods which flank both sides of the road.

Curran dropped after running about thirty feet to the screams of Mrs. Curran. Benjamin F. Snyder, a neighbor and his wife, rushed to the road, arriving just before Curran died. The latter did not utter a word prior to his death. Snyder said Tighe was carrying a .38 Smith & Wesson.

Police were notified by a passing autoist who drove to the substation in Tenetown. Mrs. Curran and her husband were removed to Emergency Hospital. Curran's body was then taken to the morgue.

and police from the Tenetown station drove a distance about 10 miles to the home of the victim.

WELCOME STRANGER MONDAY

Broadway Comedy Hit Comes To The Majestic On Successful Tour Here Is Douglas Gordon's criticism in Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch:

"Ten years ago and for years before, that one of the big hits on the popular-price circuit was 'Izzy Izzy,' a whirl of low comedy, glib music and dancing, in which the star was George Sidney, who was then one of the most amusing of all the so-called Jewish comedians who syndicated the King's English. Accents wasn't the word and dialect wasn't the word with which to suggest the sort of English that busy Izzy used to employ in the scene programmed as 'Izzy's Dizzy Hotel.' Last night at the Colonial theatre was given the first of four performances of a comedy from Broadway called 'Welcome Stranger,' in which is entitled this same George Sidney. And he isn't the same George Sidney at all. That is he is the same George Sidney, but he doesn't play the same George Sidney. In those older days he was able to rock a house with his low comedy, because as he proved last night he was able to play light comedy—straight. And this confirms once more the theory this column has clung to for many years—that no man can be a first-class comedian of any sort who doesn't build his comedy on a sound foundation.

"The play itself is original and almost unique, yet it suggests moments in other plays. For example, in 'The Country Boy,' a resident of a village who is visiting there. 'We ain't got no Jews in this village.' 'Yes grins the other, 'and that's the reason it's a village.' For another example, in 'Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford,' the partners find a small town dead on its feet, though it doesn't know it and bring it prosperity. Only in the latter play the partners start out crooked, and are reformed by force of circumstances, while in 'Welcome Stranger' Isadore Solomon is honest and straight and helpful and kindly from the beginning.

"The supporting company is uncommonly good."

Rival Methods In Selling Weed Will Be Seen Here When Bells Ring Tuesday

Danville Well Equipped to Handle the Crop Will Brought by Co-operative Marketers or Those Will Patronize the Old System—Danville Territory Is Enlarged and Good Roads Mean More Tobacco Brought Here.

The Danville tobacco season will open next Tuesday, October 3rd, for the sale of leaf by the auction method, on which day also the Cooperative Marketing Association will begin accepting deliveries of leaf under the terms of the five-year contract which hundreds of farmers in the district around Danville have signed.

The season promises to be momentous and on which carries great possibilities with it so far as the town is concerned. For the first time in this city since long before the civil war, back to the days when tobacco was bartered for trade on the sidewalks of the streets—two rival methods of disposing of the farmer's product will be in evidence. There will be the time-honored auction system with some of its flaws rectified and there will be the cooperative plan his crop leisurely and without rush, drawing, however, less ready cash or his product than he would on the warehouse floors.

With a tremendous crop matured and mostly housed during the past weeks Danville stands a chance of regaining her lost laurels. She may once more become the largest loose bright leaf tobacco market in the world. It is recognized that the size of the crop is unusual and it is also recognized that Danville, as result of some of the smaller markets becoming one hundred per cent. for the cooperative system (that is to say with an outlet for the growers who have not signed the five-year plan agreement)—becomes the logical center for those growers to bring their tobacco. In other words, Danville's auction trade radius has been increased and there is every reason to believe that the local trading facilities will be a factor in drawing to this city large numbers of farmers who have signed up with the Cooperative Marketing Association because of its larger banking facilities and the ability to borrow money on their certificates of holding in addition to their cash advances.

Another factor in favor of the redevelopment of the Danville tobacco market is the improvement of roads radiating from Danville and the fact that many of the dirt roads this summer have been reworked and top soiled affording a good surface to reach here. There are still some bad roads, however, but it is the policy of the Chamber of Commerce which has been at work indefatigably during recent years in the development of improved roads to continue its good offices and as years go by the surrounding highways will be further improved.

The Cooperative Association has developed to an amazing degree during the past eighteen months. It is interesting to record that its inception took place here in 1920 when the Tobacco Growers' Association was formed, following the trend of prices. From this developed the present Tri-State Tobacco Growers Cooperative Marketing Association which includes the States of Virginia, North and South Carolina, and which has developed a plan similar to that of the California Fruit Growers' warehouseman—that is to say the tobacco warehousemen can be eliminated, the growers saving for themselves the fees and commissions stabilizing prices by fixed grades and thus eliminating the fluctuations of prices to which tobacco is subjected on the auction floors. Only a few days ago E. L. Walton, who looks after the cooperative interests here announced that the deliveries would begin on October 3rd. The organization has leased two good-sized warehouses for its operations. One of these is Producers' Warehouse street, which has hitherto been operated as an independent house on the other is Farmer's warehouse, belonging to the Danville Warehouse Corporation and which stands on Union street where it has been closed for several years. To these markets the signers of the pool contract will begin bringing their tobacco next Tuesday, this to be weighed out and graded immediately and then sent to the redrying plants where it will be put in hogheads and kept until its sale is accomplished. The farmers will receive a percentage for the value of their tobacco loads, the balance being in the form of certificates.

The auction sales will be conducted as in days of old, except that the tobacco bolls may ring a little longer next Tuesday. Seven warehouses will be in operation here. Piedmont, one of the largest and the only remaining independent warehouse in Danville, also Arce's (M. O. Nelson), Banner (J. C. Roberts), Central (J. H. Wilson), Holland's (J. L. Tucker), Planters (C. B. Davis), and Union (G. A. Myers), the last six under the control of the Danville Warehouse Corporation.

All of the Danville warehouses, both the cooperative and the auction houses, will be staffed by men experienced in their work and the tobacco grower, be he a farmer or non-farmer, may rest assured of the best possible service and treatment while here.

The Danville Tobacco Association recognizing that one of the great evils of the auction system was the glut period and the loss of time experienced by the farmer in getting his tobacco to the floor, has authorized quadruple sales or four sales in different warehouses running simultaneously. These will begin on the opening day and it is practically certain that this innovation will remove cause of complaint long recognized as legitimate. Studied efforts have been made in past years to educate the grower into marketing slowly, not rushing the crop into town, causing the gutted condition, but growers have felt that they should be privileged to come to Danville where it suits them and that adequate vision—such as is assured by the market—made for them.

When the season opens on Tuesday the market will be well-manned by buyers. All of the larger companies will have their men on hand, there will be no lack of competition and in all probability prices at the opening will be high. The cooperative office also have little doubt that they will dispose of their tobacco at a price which will be satisfactory to the farmers.

It is more than likely that on opening day a great deal of tobacco will be here. This is due to the fact that the local season is opening at a time after the maturity of the crop. Many farmers have cut, cured and stored their tobacco and they are eager to come to Danville and to realize money on the fruits of their toil. For that reason the opening probably will be very different to the usual opening. Instead of scattered piles of primings there will be, in all probability, houses of leaf tobacco and a heavy influx on the opening day.

Local merchants are well prepared for the advent of the tobacco and are looking forward to a period after experiencing a period of depression which, it is not many weeks will inaugurate a trade and with it will come optimism, strong hopes for a better relationship between those who come to trade and those who deal with the

CALVIN JONES IS IDENTIFIED AS ROBBER

SPRAY, N. C., Sept. 30.—Judge P. T. Halzlip continued until next Saturday the hearing of Calvin Jones who was arrested here recently on the charge of being the man who defrauded the Western Union Telegraph Company out of $500 in Danville last January.

Miss Janie Freeman of the Danville office identified Jones as the man who collected the money. The court held, however, that further evidence of his guilt should be presented before he is extradited. Jones is said to have in some way wired to himself a $500 money order and to have collected it on Danville the same day. The money order apparently was wired from Martinsville but there was no record of such a transaction at the Martinsville office.

Virginia Pays One Per Cent of Income Tax In America

Over 350 Million Dollars Paid Into U. S. Treasury—State Stands Eighth.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
Special to The Bee.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 2.—Virginia paid about one per cent of the total personal and corporate income taxes collected by the Federal Government for the calendar year 1920, standing 18th among the states in the amount paid.

For the calendar year 1920 Virginia reported $278,235,229 net personal income, $98,853,038 net corporate income, a total of $377,088,267, which was 1.17 per cent of the total net income reported for the whole United States. On this net personal and corporate income Virginia paid $3,514,886 in taxes, or 96 of 1 per cent of the total paid by all the States.

New York led all the other states in the total personal and corporate income taxes paid for 1920, followed by Pennsylvania and Illinois. New York state paid about one-fourth of the entire income taxes paid to the Federal Government for the calendar year 1920, paying $639,799,964.

Of Virginia's 2,309,187 population, $2,574 made personal income tax returns in 1920. The average net income reported was $2,951.47; the average tax paid was $28.60. The total net personal income they reported as $273,235,229 and on this they paid a tax of 7,404,291.

The amount of net income reported by Virginia income tax payers has grown steadily since 1916. In 1917 the amount of net income reported was $130,632,859 in 1918 $173,103,495 in 1919, $247,685,373, and in 1920 it was $278,235,229.

Four persons in the United States made returns on personal net incomes of $5,000,000 and over for the calendar year 1920. Two lived in New York state and two in Michigan. The two New Yorkers paid on net personal incomes of $16,473,642 and $12,460,335.

The highest net personal income on which return was made from Virginia was $250,000 and $300,000. Two persons in Virginia paid income taxes on incomes of that amount, their combined taxable incomes being $557,845, on which they paid a tax of $55,784.

Two other Virginians paid income taxes on net personal incomes between $100,000 and $200,000; 7 between $50,000 and $100,000; three between $20,000 and $50,000; three between $10,000 and $20,000; eight between $5,000 and $10,000; 26 between $2,000 and $5,000; and 43 between $1,000 and $2,000.

Personal incomes between $1,000 and $2,000 composed the largest group in Virginia, there being about 26,000 who reported earnings between those amounts. About 35,000 persons reported earnings between $2,000 and $5,000.

Thirty three persons reported net personal incomes of over one million dollars during the calendar year 1920, in the whole United States. Of these four reported over $5,000,000 each; 3 between $2,000,000 and $4,000,000; 4 between 2 and 3 million; 3 between 1,500,000 and $2,000,000; and 19 between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000.

The number of corporation income tax returns for the calendar year 1920, was 345,595. Of these 203,233 reported net income amounting to $7,905,654,813; net income tax, $336,506,282; and export tax, $388,726,351; total tax, $1,625,234,642.

For the calendar year 1919, the number of corporation returns was 320,125, of which 209,124 reported net income totalling $9,417,418,458, and tax aggregating $2,173,341,578.

There were 160 corporations that filed returns for 1920 reporting net income of $5,000,000 and over, 886 that filed returns from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000; 1,132 that filed returns from $500,000 to $1,000,000, 2,122 from $250,000 to $500,000, and 5,497 from $100,000 to $250,000.

The number of income tax payers who filed income tax returns for the calendar year 1920 was 2,309,187, and the tax (normal and surtax) amounted to $1,975,053,686. As compared with 1919, the above figures show a growth of 1,927,184 in the number of returns filed and an increase in the total net income reported amounting to $3,876,137, but a decrease of $76,418 in the total tax.

As evidence of the increased scope of the work of the Bureau of Internal Revenue and an increasing knowledge of taxpayers from year to year as to the requirements of the income tax law, the report issued today by the bureau shows that in 1917 there were filed 3,472,390 personal returns showing net income of $13,650,000,000, while in 1920 there were filed 7,259,944 personal returns showing a net income of $22,726,000,000.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds are serious lung trouble. You can get them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with a twofold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation while the creosote gets on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—adv.

Officer Just in Time to Prevent a Fight

A disturbance which came near resulting in a fight, was averted in the police court this morning when Tom Elliott and Paul Weatherford, both police officers, were brought to court and the latter an additional $10 and costs for being drunk. L. D. Farmer, a white man, was complainant in the case.

Police Officer W. T. Kessler was sent to the scene on North Union street Saturday afternoon in response to a call and when he arrived, the men were exhibiting pocket knives, butcher knives and rocks, and the row was about to reach the stage of a fight. Farmer claimed to be the owner of the knives and the other man, who was a negro, claimed to be the owner of the rocks. Elliott cursed him and he asked him if he was talking to him. Elliott, he alleges, became impatient and took a knife from his pocket. At the same time Farmer was coming to cut the street and brought back a stone, about as large as he could carry. Elliott says he reached in his pocket to get a bottle of vinegar, which he was carrying and he felt a butcher knife which he had seen hanging to cut him and he began to leave it to the house. He brought forth the knife and warned the negroes not to approach further. Just at this time the officer arrived.

Elliott denied cursing, stating that he had made a civil remark after Elliott had run against him in passing. Cases of three alleged gamblers were heard in court. Anderson James was fined $10 and costs, Will Douglas did not appear and was committed to jail. Scott was fined $5 and costs and Tish Gravelly was acquitted. All were colored and were caught early Sunday morning by Patrolman W. C. Talley, who claims he watched them from the outside through a window. All of the accused denied the charges and the negroes finally won her acquittal. None of them lived at the place. James, after being summoned, left the place and went to a house on Anderson row. Talley knew the reputation of the negroes and the places he visited and he thought he would follow. After seeing him enter, the officer peered through a crack and witnessed a whiskey transaction which resulted in the arrest of Liza Broady, colored, who was this morning fined $10 and costs and sentenced to serve thirty days in jail. The officer testified that he stood at the window and heard James ask the negroes for some whiskey. He says she went into a rear room and brought back a glass full of liquor. James drank it and handed Liza fifty cents. The negroes denied the charge. Talley gave evidence of further disorder in the house, also.

John Williams, colored, was fined $15 and costs and beating his boarder. Williams was arrested at the Southern depot just after he had bought a ticket for Greensboro. Ross Archer, colored, fined $20 and costs on a statutory charge, the offense dating back in July and she left town but was arrested on her return several days ago. Fines of $20 and costs each were imposed on Wesley McNeely and Mary West, both colored, on statutory charges.

J. N. Cheek, violating the Mapp act, not present. A fine of $15 and costs was imposed on Will Cunningham, colored, for operating a disorderly and ill-governed house in Opera House alley. Will Owens fined $20 and costs for speeding.

Burton Barnes, speeding, continued. Carlton Wells, charged with violating the Mapp act, was granted a continuance until Wednesday. Stanley Scott was fined $50 and costs for driving a automobile while drunk and his license to drive automatically revoked. Isaac Whitlock fined $14.45 for operating car with wrong tag.

A large number of numbers as usual on Monday morning following Saturday night and Sunday, were dealt with.

11 Cent Stamp Will Be Sold

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—A new 11 cent postage stamp, peacock blue with a portrait of Rutherford B. Hayes, will be placed on sale Wednesday at Fremont, O., in connection with the commemoration of the 10th anniversary of the birth of the former president. The first stamp from the press will be presented to Mrs. Harding.

The Hayes stamp is the first of a complete series of 16 stamps, on sale generally during the next 30 days. A 5 cent "Roosevelt stamp" will be ready for distribution October 27, the anniversary of the birth of the former president. Mr. Roosevelt's portrait was selected for a recent stamp of the post-office department announced today, "because this denomination is most widely used on letters to foreign countries where the former president's name was believed to be more universal than that of any other."

A new 50 cent stamp bearing a picture of the Arlington amphitheater and the tomb of the unknown soldier will be placed on sale on Armistice Day, November 11.

In the new series, the 13 cent stamp has been discontinued, while 14 cent and 25 cent stamps have been added. The portraits and designs for the entire series are: 1 cent, Franklin; 2 cent, Washington; 3 cent, Lincoln; 4 cent, Martha Washington; 5 cent, Roosevelt; 6 cent, Garfield; 7 cent, McKinley; 8 cent, Grant; 9 cent, Jefferson; 10 cent, Monroe; 11 cent, Hayes; 12 cent, Cleveland; 14 cent, Indian; 15 cent, Statue of Liberty; 20 cent, seamite; 25 cent, Niagara; 30 cent, Buffalo; 50 cent, Arlington Amphitheater; $1 Lincoln Memorial; $2, Capitol; $5, America.

The subjects were selected with careful regard for their suitability, the department announced, adding:

"The portraits of Washington and Jefferson, the fathers of our institutions; Franklin as the first postmaster general; Martha Washington to commemorate the pioneer womanhood of America; Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley as the martyrs presidents; Monroe, to mark the foreign policy associated with his name, with Grant, Hayes, Cleveland and Roosevelt carrying on the historical line to a recent day."

City School Problem Before Board; Congestion Acute

The city school board with the cooperation of W. E. Griggs, school superintendent and the parent teachers' associations is giving the closest attention to the school situation in Danville with a view to relieving congestion which is more acute than at any other time in the city's history.

It is almost a foregone conclusion that the citizens will be asked to vote on the question of a bond issue of $150,000 sometime before the end of the year. This may come in the November election, or the board, feeling that it cannot solve the school problem so quickly may defer the task of going before the people until later in the winter.

Various plans are said to be in view but none have yet been given out officially. One plan, it is understood is a large addition to Robert E. Lee school as a junior high school, and a general shake-up in the school arrangement so as to put this addition to the greatest possible advantage. The congestion is understood to be worse insofar as the white schools are concerned, in the high school. The compulsory school law is not in force here just now because of the present lack of facilities which the school board is trying to solve. The situation in the colored schools is understood to be more serious. Over two hundred under age children have been refused admittance to these schools owing to lack of facilities. These are children under seven years of age, but of sufficient maturity to warrant tuition which probably would be afforded if there was room for them.

Mr. Griggs is cooperating in every way with the board and is offering valuable suggestions.

The superintendent asked the school board to permit the installation of telephones in the school for business purposes only. This request has been granted but as the schoolboard has no funds the principle are deterred to be willing to pay for them. Just at present there is a hitch in the installation of these telephones as the cost of such is proving rather more than was anticipated. It is hoped to adjust the matter before long.

The establishment of telephones will be a time saver to the superintendent in his work, in getting in touch with teachers and principals instead of having the journey by car or on foot whenever he has some school matter to attend to.

SITUATION IS NOW BEGINNING TO CLEAR
LONDON, Oct. 2.—(Associated Press.)—With the virtual acceptance by Mustafa Kemal Pasha of a conference at Mudania Tuesday, or as soon as possible thereafter, the whole near eastern situation is considered temporarily easier. However, the fact that Turkish troops are still concentrating in the land zone, would indicate, according to remarks made after the British cabinet's second meeting today, that "Kemal is still playing a game."

While the cabinet members appear to be much gratified at the happy conclusion for the moment of a difficulty which might have necessitated the use of force in the Chanak zone, there are other bridges to cross. Up to the present there is no information from General Harington, the British commander at Constantinople, that Kemal will attend the Mudania conference, although General Harington's despatches indicated he might.

After several cabinet meetings Saturday one of them running into 1 o'clock Sunday morning, information from the Near East was considered not altogether satisfactory and two additional meetings were held today. It is possible others will be held Monday, though. Frank Lord George went to Chequers Court, his summer residence, late this afternoon.

The Mudania meeting will be a purely military affair to arrange, according to the original allied note to Kemal Pasha, that the neutral zone shall be respected, also to agree upon lines behind which the Greeks are to withdraw in Thrace, both points pending the general peace conference. There will be present military representatives of the three allied powers as well as of Greece and Turkey.

It is pointed out that the very basis of the conference is respect for the neutral zone and before it begins the Turks will be expected to evacuate the Chanak area entirely. On this point there has been quibbling until the British cabinet permitted Lord George Harington to send a virtual ultimatum to the Turks to clear out. Although the Turks have not yet withdrawn completely they have evacuated the heights of Eren parading before the British wire entanglements.

If the Turks around Ismid commence such actions, or attempt to enter the neutral zone at that point, there is likelihood that the British will raise that question before the conference. It is known that while General Harington is making every effort to maintain peace, he is a most exacting and determined person when given cause.

Daring Attempt Nipped in the Bud

After a thrilling chase over the tops of buildings in the Boswell block, Police Detective J. N. Campbell and Patrolman W. C. Talley, nabbed Joseph Allen Holt, a negro, who had planned and begun a robbery expedition in Clark's sporting goods store on Main street. Assisting in the capture of the man was the large crowd of spectators who gathered on the street. The negro was practically the entire relief of Sergeant H. T. Haraway, including Officers F. G. Towell, A. C. Morgan, R. A. Adams, T. O. Belton and C. A. Collier. The sudden appearance of the officers and the commotion that followed, brought a crowd of a hundred or more spectators to the scene and for nearly half an hour they lined the sidewalk viewing what part of the chase on the roof they could and awaiting developments. The negro was finally caught under an old shed close to the canal, back of the main building, by Campbell and Talley. They hasten to the police station with their prisoner. The large crowd following the negro was taken into a private room and put through a grilling examination in which he admitted his intention to rob Clark's store, probably others, and confessed to two other main street robberies.

The negro's capture was perhaps due to the alertness of Misses Maude and Lillian Brown, connected with Brown's millinery store. The store had just been closed and the Misses Brown were straightening up the books for the day and writing some letters. The usual Saturday night noise created by traffic on Main street had ceased and an air of unusual quietness prevailed. Suddenly the two ladies heard footsteps on the roof of the building and listened closely for several minutes. The waiting continued and they concluded everything was not just right. Fearing that they might frighten the intruder away, they remained perfectly quiet and kept their positions. One of them working while the other tipped across the store to the telephone and quietly called the police. The fact that so large a number of officers were at the station at the time is explained by reason that a new shift was to go on duty at 11 o'clock. The above mentioned officers hurried to the scene and as they trotted down the street many who happened to be out at that time, joined them and by the time they reached the scene, a large crowd was on hand. Campbell and Talley went to the rear and scaled the smaller buildings, finally going up from pipe which put them on the top of the main building. The remaining officers spread in different directions, enclosing the block to watch for the negro, should he attempt to come down and get away. The moment Campbell and Talley reached the top they caught sight of the man and the latter also observed that he had made trouble for himself. He started to run and the officers gave chase. From one end of the block to the other and from the front of the building to the rear, the three were seen to go. No movie thriller had anything on the negro and the two officers who at times appeared dangerously close to the edge. Finally at the rear the negro jumped from the main building onto the roof of a smaller one. Campbell instructed Talley to go to the ground while he stayed there. Campbell soon followed on seeing that the man was making his way downward. The officers joined each other and were again on the trail of their man. It was then but a few minutes before they cornered and captured him at a shed near the canal.

On being questioned at the police station, the negro broke down and confessed to his intentions to execute a robbery. On being still further pressed he admitted seeing his way into the same store on two previous occasions and succeeding in getting a number of articles. The negro gave his name as Joseph Holt and said he lived near the Dry Bridge just south of the city. Holt had not actually gained entrance to the building but had made every preparation to do so. He had with him a large assortment of various kinds of tools. These were left in the roof when the chase began but the officers went back after them later. It was the intention of Holt to saw through the bars in a rear window on the second floor, as he had done before, after once getting on the roof of the lower part of the building. Explanation of his presence on the top of the tallest part of the structure was that he, after realizing that he had been detected and was being pursued, went up there to escape the officers. This was where the police found him first. The attempt to break in with purpose of robbery was a bold one in view of the fact that the negro hardly waited until the store had closed for the night before he began his feat. Had he waited just a short time longer a different scene might have been told. Holt was lodged in jail, following close examination.

PITT. TEACHERS INSTITUTE OPENS

CHATHAM, Sept. 30.—The Pittsylvania county Teachers Institute which opened in the Chatham High School on Friday was attended by more than three hundred teachers and the well arranged program composed of subjects of importance was thoroughly enjoyed by the large gathering. At noon luncheon was served by a committee of ladies from the town of which committee Mrs. R. I. Overbey was chairman. The program closed Saturday afternoon. From point of attendance this institute surpassed any held here. Ground was on Thursday broken for the large addition to Hotel Bennett on which work will be pushed. The addition will add one room for business other than the Hotel on the ground floor and the whole will be raised one story and many modern conveniences added throughout. The brick work will be done by Hancock Brothers of Lynchburg. The Edwards were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. W. T. Ganada on Thursday afternoon the enjoyable occasion being very much enhanced by the serving of delicious refreshments. The sports and Pook club were very highly entertained at the home of Mr. H. D. Shepherd on Friday night. Six tables were in play and the game much enjoyed by all present. Refreshment closed the evening of pleasure.

Miss Marshall of Lynchburg attended the Pittsylvania county Teachers Institute. She will teach at Greenfield School the coming season. She was delayed owing to enlarging the building.

CHARTER IS GRANTED

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 30.—The Tidewater Crossings, Inc., was granted a charter by the state to construct a Commission to construct and maintain a toll bridge across the Pamunkey River near West Point. The concern plans afterwards to construct several additional bridges across the Pamunkey.

FEEL SO TIRED ALL THE TIME

Indiana Lady Says She Was Run-down, Suffered With Her Back, Took Cardui, and Got Well

Richmond, Ind.—"I thought I would write a line or so, to say that I owe my good health and strength to Cardui," says a letter from Mrs. Cora Courtney, of 708 North Seventeenth Street, this city. "I was all run-down until my family thought they would lose me," writes Mrs. Courtney. "My husband coaxed me to take Cardui, so, to please him, I did and I say I do not regret it, for I am able to do all my work and do my shopping. "I have five children, four in school, my husband and a boarder to do for, and I do all my own work for all of us. I am able to play. We all praise Cardui. Every sick and run-down woman should take this wonderful medicine. "I suffered with my back; a very weak feeling in my limbs. I felt hardly able to drag; just tired—so tired all the time. "It was an effort for me to do anything, but Cardui helped me so I felt like a different woman. "If you are in a run-down physical condition, suffering as this Indiana lady says she did, give Cardui a fair trial. It should help you. Cardui is a purely vegetable, tonic medicine for women. It is found valuable in thousands of such cases as described above. Take Cardui. Your druggist sells it—adv.

City Has Been Paying For Gas Used By Campbell

That the City of Danville has been paying for the gasoline used by Officer J. N. Campbell, who also has received pay for carrying prisoners to jail in his Ford touring car, was brought to light yesterday in an investigation made by The Register. Two filling stations in Danville have been supplying the needs of Campbell, who often makes several mobile tank filled at one of these two places and had the bill charged to the city. The average monthly cost of the gasoline, used by Campbell in his car, was something over $20. One filling station said that Campbell had bought $15 to $20 per month at that place. The other filling station said that Campbell's bill had run something over $20 per month up until about two months ago, all of the gasoline had been purchased from one station. Then the change was made and all of it was bought from another station. The bills for the gasoline have been O. K.'d by Chief of Police Bell and have been paid by the city.

An average of over twenty dollars a month would mean that the Ford consumed between seventy and eighty gallons of gasoline a month which should mean considerable mileage. Chief Bell was questioned in regard to the matter. He said that he knew that Campbell had been charging the gasoline he used in his car to the city in fact he authorized the action of the city officer and took entire responsibility for it. He justified the course saying that the city motorcycle would be from time to time need repairs and that Campbell's Ford was used instead of the motorcycle; that the city had been paying for the gasoline used in the motorcycle and that he thought it would be perfectly proper for a city to pay for the gasoline so used.

When asked whether Campbell had received pay for carrying prisoners during the time the city paid for his gasoline, Chief Bell at first said that the officer had received pay "a few times," but later changed the statement, saying that he could not tell whether Campbell had received remuneration for trips made on gasoline bought by the city. Chief Bell said that he had O. K.'d the bills for gasoline bought by Campbell and the bills had been paid for by the city just as he had the former bills for gasoline used in the motorcycle, no distinction having been made.

This explains the fact that when City Auditor H. P. Moss was asked whether any bills for gasoline, used by Officer Campbell in his car had been paid by the city he replied in the negative. He had taken it for granted that the gasoline purchased had been for the motorcycle. The record shows that Campbell made many trips for which he received pay during the period the city was paying for the gasoline in his car. In this connection it should be

Reduce Your Fat Without Dieting

Years ago the formula for fat reduction was "diet"—"exercise." Today it is "Take Marmola Prescription Tablets." Friends tell friends—these facts tell others. The best substantial food, live as they like and still reduce steadily and easily without going through long steps of tiresome exercise and starvation diet. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists the world over at one dollar for a case, or direct from the Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.—adv.

brought out that many of the prisoners who were carried to the city jail in officers' car paid cash fares, the money thus paid being pocketed then and there by the officer making the trip, no record being made of the transaction. So it will be readily seen that the records available do not show the number of prisoners actually carried in officers' cars or the total receipts for such trips. Chief Bell said that he objected to this custom and had discontinued it in the past, giving instructions for the habit to be discontinued. The first story published by the newspaper disclosed the custom of certain of the officers using their private cars for personal gain in carrying prisoners to the city jail appeared to raise the ire of Officer Campbell, who seemed to think that graft on the part of officers had been intimidated by the story, and he told a reporter that if any such intimation was intended he would "knock the writer's head off."

BURCH—MITCHELL

A surprise wedding which will be of much interest to the many friends in both this and their native state was solemnized Saturday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock at the home of Miss J. Dennis Sitterton, Green street, sister of the bride, when Miss Lucinda Mae Burch became the bride of Charles Walter Mitchell, Rev. James M. Shelburne, of the First Baptist church performing the ring ceremony. The wedding was a very quiet one, being witnessed by only a few relatives and close friends. The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns. The bride was handsomely attired in a travelling suit of dark brown with accessories to match. She wore a beautiful string of pearls, gift of the groom. Miss Burch is a young woman of rare charms and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill Burch, of Windsor, North Carolina. The groom is a successful young business man of Merry Hill, N. C. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left for Washington and other northern points after which they will be at home at Merry Hill, N. C.

RALLY WEEK WILL CLOSE ON SUNDAY

The Rally Week program at the First Presbyterian church came to a close yesterday. Enthusiastic and well attended meetings of the various organized groups of the Sunday school and church were held throughout the past week. Special rally day exercises will be had in connection with the program of the Sunday school Sunday morning. A large attendance is expected in all of the departments of the school. A special offering will be made for Sunday school extension. Dr. Du Bose will occupy his pulpit at both services today. His subject for the morning will be "The Foundations of Vital Religion." At 7:30 in the evening he will deliver the fourth in a series of sermons on the

D. M. I. LOOKS TO SOUTH BOSTON

D. M. I. Cadets found an unexpected strength in South Boston's eleven yesterday and in place of last year's winning score of 48 to nothing, the Tigers were pressed to take the bad end of a 35 to 6 score. South Boston played a consistent, steady game, followed their interference well, and easily deserved to win.

D. M. I. did not seem to be able to find itself, and hampered by the greenness of several of its men, and only ran day practice showed only occasional flashes of form. Then for brief periods they showed steam and action worthy of a fighting eleven. The defeat was decisive and no ability is offered. It should, however, aid considerably in shaping the team for next week-end's game here with Martinsville.

Va. University Defeats G. W.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Sept. 30.—The University of Virginia overwhelmed George Washington University here this afternoon 34 to 0, in the first game of the season. The first period was scoreless but the Virginians opened up in the second and always held the edge thereafter. George Washington failed to register a first down, being stopped with six inches of the Virginian's goal in the second period. Quarterback Thomas of the visitors, suffered a broken ankle in the third quarter, when he went down under two Virginians while attempting to run back a punt.

TITLED WOMEN SUCCEED IN BUSINESS

TOP TO BOTTOM: THE COUNTESS OF CLONMELL, LADY POYNTER, AND COUNTESS ANNESLEY.

Some of England's most ambitious and successful business women are members of British nobility.

The Countess of Clonmell has opened a laundry she calls "The White Elephant" in the most aristocratic section of London. To keep her business running smoothly she frequently goes into the workrooms herself to superintend.

Lady Poynter, wife of Mr. Ambrose Poynter, the architect, and a famous beauty is now an interior decorator. Her shop is in Beauchamp Place, London.

Countess Annesley has gone into the millinery business. She has a famous shop in London and takes an active part in serving customers.

BANDANAS

Besides being the popular material for hats now, bandana handkerchiefs in silk are being used for coat vests and original looking sashes. Often they make smart handbags to be worn with turban of the same.

NEWS OF SOUTH BOSTON

SOUTH BOSTON, Sept. 30.—The Halifax County Fair Association announced here this week that the fair will be officially opened at South Boston on Oct. 17th by Governor E. Lee Trinkle. This will be Gov. Trinkle's first visit here since his inauguration and a very large crowd is expected here on that date to welcome him.

Mayor Wilborne is preparing to place some valuable information before the members of the town Council on next Monday night. He has been conferring with about 150 towns in Florida, North Carolina, Maryland and Mississippi in regard to their systems of caring for streets, disposal of garbage, salaries of police and other matters in connection with the upkeep of the town.

Mayor Wilborne indorses a budget system of handling the town's finances and will also present this subject to the Council at its next meeting.

The parents of the Parent-Teachers Association will give a reception on the evening of Oct. 6th at the Young Men's Business Club in honor of the teachers of the town.

The local Military Company has formed a football team and have arranged for a series of games for the season.

The delegates from South Boston who attended the annual U. C. I. U. meeting in Danville this week were Mrs. Withers Bagwell, Mrs. A. A. Harrell, Mrs. Arch Estes and Mrs. Tom De Jarnette.

Mrs. Mildred Waddell of Clover, Va., announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Frances Waddell, to Mr. R. W. R. Hart of Lynchburg, Va. The wedding will take place in October.

The evangelistic services which are being conducted at the Methodist Church here by Dr. Smith of Roanoke, Va., are being well attended. The choir of the various churches here united with the Methodist Church choir and good music is a feature of the services. Dr. Smith will continue his sermons until Oct. 4.

A large number of people from here went to Lynchburg last week to attend the services being held by "Bible" Sunday. Among those who heard this famous evangelist were Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Mosely, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Friend, Mrs. W. C. State and others.

Miss Hattie Jordan and Miss Mary Booth motored to Richmond this week where they will be enrolled in the Masses Business College.

The family of Mr. Tucker C. Watkins left here this week for Richmond, Va., where they will spend the winter.

The people of Jewish faith have been observing their New Year celebration here. On Monday Rabbi D. Kustner of Danville, Va., is expected to hold services in celebration of the Day of Atonement.

At Danville, Va., Sept. 30, 1923.

KIWANIS CLUBS TO MEET SOON IN WASHINGTON

Interest in all Kiwanis Clubs of the Capital District is now centered in their District Convention to be held in Washington, D. C., October 13th and 14th.

The Capital District embraces the states of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia—23 clubs and about 2,000 members.

"On to Washington Committee" are at work on each club and it is expected that over 500 Kiwanians and their ladies will attend. The two days will be filled with activity, blending business with pleasure, conducted with true Kiwanian spirit.

While each Kiwanian Club in the District selects its delegates, who elect the officers, pass on amendments to the by-laws, matters of District finance, and advise the Trustees as to Convention cities, every Kiwanian in good standing is a member of the District organization and is entitled to the floor and a vote on other matters presented.

A splendid program has been arranged beginning at 9 a. m., October 13th, with conference of trustees, presidents and delegates, followed by a general session of the convention from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., adjourning for luncheon. At 2:30 an automobile ride around the city and parks and to Arlington, where a wreath will be placed on the tomb of the "unknown soldiers." Friday night will be "Stunt Night," concluding with a dance. The morning of the second day will be devoted to a business session of the convention and election of officers. A motor trip will be taken in the afternoon to Alexandria, where the visitors will be the guests of the Alexandria club at luncheon. Later the party will visit the home of George Washington at Mt. Vernon. The banquet will be held Saturday night at the Washington Hotel, which will be convention headquarters.

Several international officers are expected to attend the convention including immediate past President Harry E. Kay, international secretary Parker, international treasurer Elwood J. Turner and Victor M. Johnson, who are scheduled for addresses.

Sus Howard, metropolitan soprano, who delighted Kiwanians at Cleveland and Norfolk counties, will be a feature.

RICHMOND BADLY BEATEN IN GAME

EASTON, Penn., Sept. 30.—Lafayette College football team, undefeated on the gridiron last season, started its march this afternoon by handing the University of Richmond a 34 to 0 defeat. Contrary to the idea conveyed by the size of the score, the game was contested nearly all the way. With nine lettermen from last year's championship team in the line-up it has been expected that the Maroon would score an easy win. But the invaders met the veteran Lafayette team for a hard-fought battle of the gridiron. Richmond made but one first down from scrimmage.

Mrs. K. P. Bass will leave Sunday for Roanoke, Va., several weeks with Mrs. Ralph Baker.

UNIVERSITY OF GA. WINS
ANTHENS, Ga., Sept. 30.—Mercer's mountainous line proved light opposition to the University of Georgia Bull Dogs here today. Stegman's men slipped passes over it, crashed through it and waded through it to block a punt piling up a 41-0 victory.

ROANOKE COLLEGE WINS 187 TO 0

SALEM, Va., Sept. 30.—The Roanoke College Maroons smothered Randolph Macon Academy under an avalanche of touchdowns in the first game of the season today on College Field winning by the score of 187 to 0. Smashing line drives by three of back and the wonderful work of the heavy line proved too much for the lighter Academy boys and they failed to hold the Collegians but one time during the game.

The whole Roanoke College team played stellar ball, marked by perfect interference on the part of the backfield. The line never failed to open a large hole and the few times they were on the defensive they broke through and smashed up the Academy boys' attack before it reached the line.

WALKER HITS 3TH
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—Clarence (Tiller) Walker of the Philadelphia American League Base Ball team hit his 37th home run of the season in the fifth inning of the second game of today's double-header with Washington. Francis was the opposing pitcher.

THE "SHOPPING CENTER" OF ALL VIRGINIA AND THE CAROLINAS

RUGS From the Orient

Nothing so distinguishes "the home of good taste" as rich, luxurious Oriental Rugs! The incomparable beauty and charm, the practical utility and permanence of these masterpieces of Oriental Weaving, are now enjoyed in our best homes throughout the country.

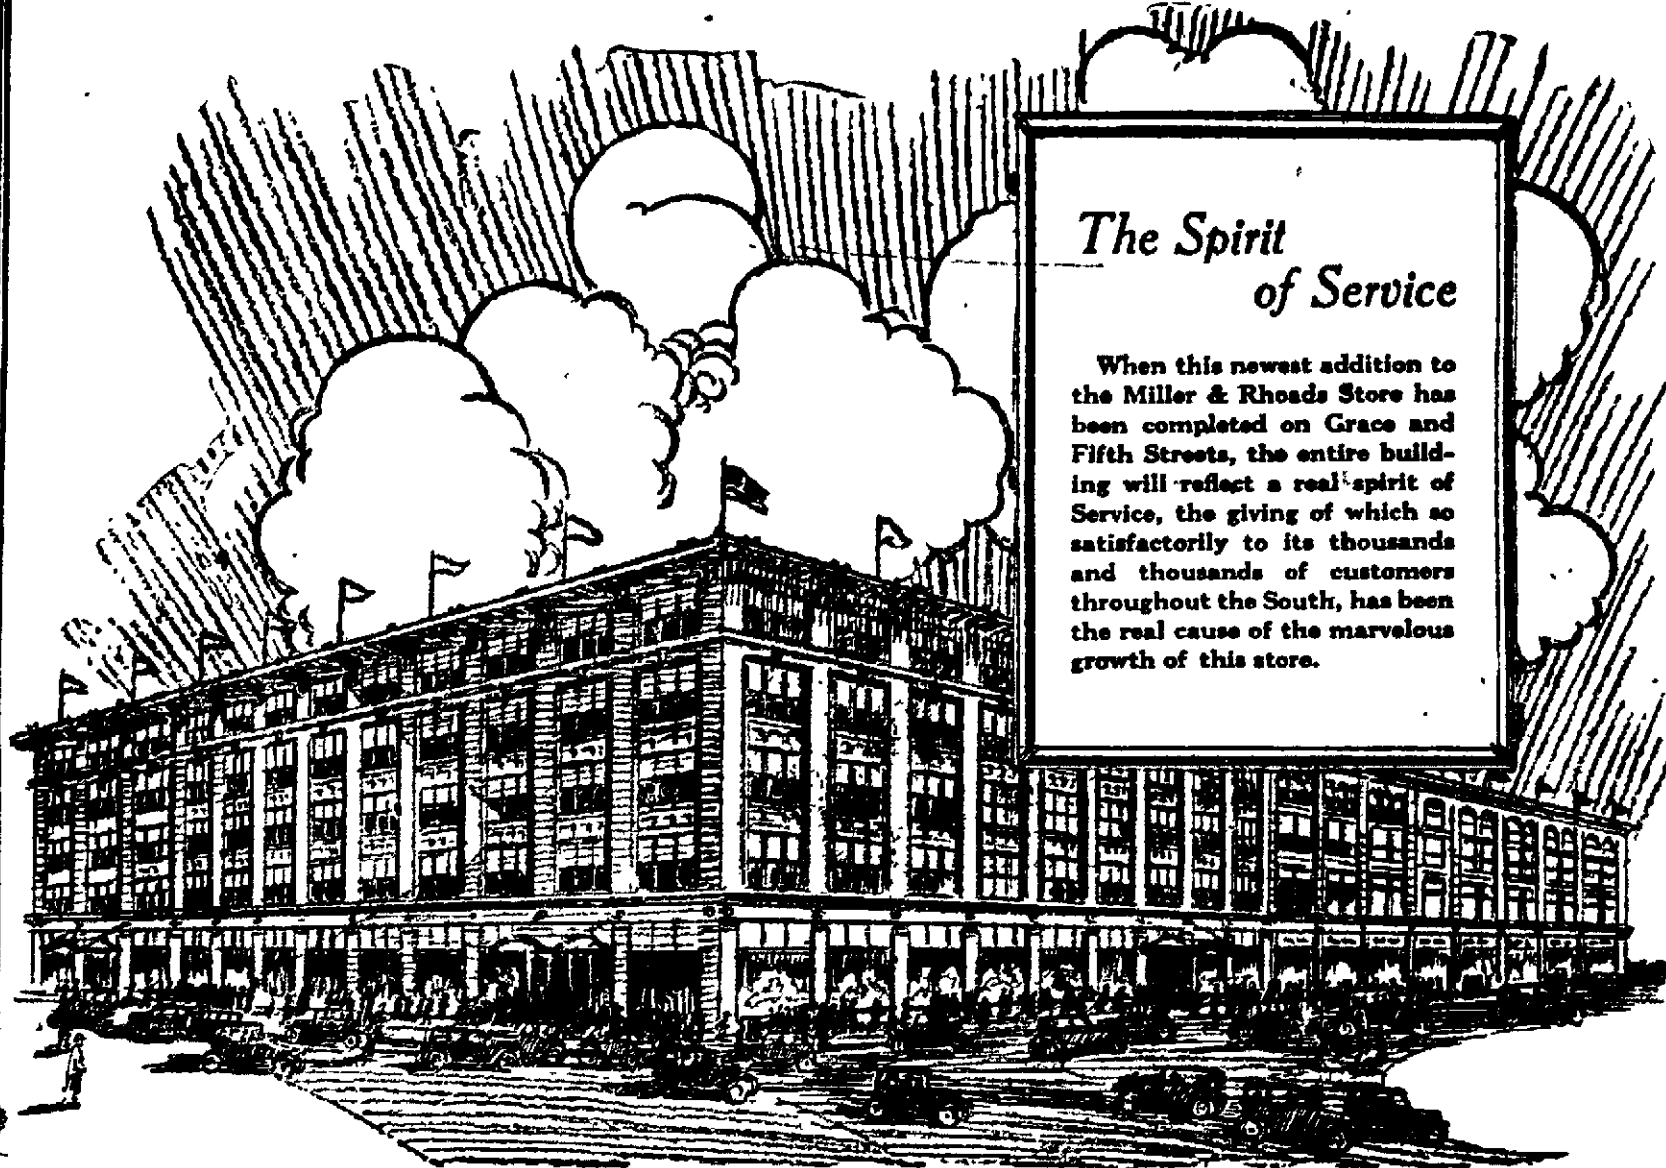

At Miller and Rhoads are unusually fine collections of Oriental Rugs, both Persian and Chinese, which are without counterpart in point of quantity, quality or variety anywhere in the South.

From the small, or scatter sizes to full-room size.

"If you cannot get it locally, try MILLER & RHOADS"

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

The Spirit of Service

When this newest addition to the Miller & Rhoads Store has been completed on Grace and Fifth Streets, the entire building will reflect a real spirit of Service, the giving of which so satisfactorily to its thousands and thousands of customers throughout the South, has been the real cause of the marvelous growth of this store.

A STORE of Service— Service in Merchandise Service in conduct

About The Mammoth New Addition to the Miller & Rhoads Store

The splendid new building you see sketched in the centre of this page is now under construction, and will extend the entire distance from Fifth to Sixth Street on the Grace Street side, and back to the alleyway of Fifth Street, giving the store a full square on Sixth Street and on Grace, with entrances on Broad, Sixth, Grace and Fifth Streets. The combined floor space will be 361,980 square feet (219 times greater than the original Miller & Rhoads Store).

The Basement will have Wash Goods, China Silver, Cut Glass, Kitchenware, Bathroom Fixtures, Books, Stationery and Engravings.

The First Floor will show Silks, and Dress Goods, Linens, White Goods, Laces, Jewelry, Hosiery, Neckwear, Toilet Goods, Ribbons, Men's Furnishings, Notions and other small wares. Here also will be all the Accommodation features for Better Store Service.

The Second Floor will contain all Ready-to-Wear Apparel and Undergarments, Shoes, Infants' Wear, the Beauty Parlor and greatly enlarged Waiting and Rest Rooms.

The Third Floor will display Oriental and Domestic Rugs, Linoleums and floor coverings of all kinds, Art Needle Work, Upholstery, Draperies, Trunks, Bags and Mahogany Furniture.

The Fourth Floor will contain all the offices and Reserve Stock Rooms.

The Fifth Floor will have the finest Cafe in the South, where, high above the noise and bustle of the streets, our customers and visitors can enjoy the mid-day meal in quiet and restful comfort.

The Sixth Floor will be given over entirely for the rest and comfort of our employees during their mid-day rest periods.

The people of the South are greatly interested in and proud of this magnificent improvement in their favorite store.

A MESSAGE FROM A BIG, FRIENDLY STORE—

"BIGELOW-HARTFORDS" Finest of American Made RUGS

Rugs we are as proud to sell you as you will be to own, are those known to the trade as "Bigelow-Hartford." They are Rugs that play well their part, whatever their surroundings, adding unfailingly the desired note of warmth and color—whether one's choice chances to be one of the handsome Ispaham Wiltons, a Bussorah Axminster, or a modest Saranac seamless Brussels. Their very name assures highest quality and durability, and patterns are among the choicest variations of the Oriental.

Our very extensive Rug Stocks contain Rugs of every size, with colors or combinations exactly suited for any room.

FURNITURE With A Hospitable Air

Fine Colonial and other period Furniture of mahogany, or walnut, serves, as can no other, to impart a certain grandeur to the home atmosphere. Such were the types so familiar about the fine old mansions of our grandfathers' and grandmothers' days and the beauty of their simple, though distinctive, lines has never been excelled.

Perhaps there's a "lonesome" place against your wall that might easily be transformed into a spot of cozy loveliness by just a chair, a table, or a lamp!

And there are Beds (including historic four-posters) and Dressers, and Chiffoniers and scores of other distinctive pieces that are a joy to behold—and to own—by those who delight in nicer things for the home.

There are many thrills for Furniture seekers in this department, for attractive values are ever there.

DRAPERIES For That "Final Touch"

One's Curtains are appraised from every angle—one's friends who come within the charmed circle of the home and the great world outside that passes by—all are judges! Let approval be the verdict.

Here are hangings of which we have good reason to be proud.

In Point de Esprit, Paris Point, Cluny, Fillet, Madras, Net or Dotted Swiss Curtains—here are very notable values.

Cretennes—imported and domestic—more than we have ever before shown at one time, and more beautiful.

It's such a pleasure to make selections amid such surroundings.

To The People of Danville and Surrounding Country

EVERYWHERE Women are asking "What is to be worn this Fall?" It is the momentous question that sways the world of femininity, now, and quite in harmony with it is "Where may the Newest Things be seen?"

In the splendid preparations Miller & Rhoads have made to answer these questions interestingly and profitably is the message this store is broadcasting throughout this community today, for the edification of our many friends who are ever eager to hear when the topics have to do with a New Season's Modes.

Glorious Autumn's first cool, crisp, invigorating days—does not their coming bring with them thoughts of New Clothes, New Hats, New Footwear, and other New Accessories of Smart Autumn Dress? And perhaps, visions of new and more comfortable Furnishings for the Home?

Autumn Fashion Exposition

During the month of October we extend to Women everywhere, a cordial invitation to visit the store and personally browse around among these New Styles.

This will provide a splendid opportunity to secure first-hand information concerning certain important style changes and make satisfactory selections. For the merchandise portrayed by these vast assemblages is not only delightfully new, but is gathered from unimpeachable sources by this store that we may offer you the completed chapter in the Book of Fashion for Fall and Winter 1922.

Now's The Time To See Autumn's Displays At Their Very Best

For Example: In our French Grey Salon of Women's Fashions; scores of the most celebrated Fashion artists of America have sent their masterpieces of style in Frocks, Three-piece Costume Tailleurs, Wraps, Etc., Silhouettes in which show unmistakably the influences of the Far East, Russia, Egypt, Persia, and France. Style details are often assembled from many countries and skillfully combined by designers.

Millinery, Blouse, Skirt and Shoe Departments display the supreme achievements of the Autumn Season, along with modes that appeal to quieter tastes. Likewise in displays of Dainty Lingerie and Corsets.

Fabrics of the most radiant weaves in Silks and Woolens grace our yard Goods Sections in varieties seemingly without end.

Smart New Neckwear, Hosiery, Gloves, and so all along the line. From the most important outer apparel to the seemingly least significant dress accessory, through myriads of articles for personal use, to delightful New Things for the home: Oriental and Domestic Rugs, Curtains, Draperies, Furniture, the spirit of a new Autumn is radiating a beauty and charm that are truly eloquent of these most glorious days of the year.

Detailed Accounts of such merchandise are quite impossible. Take a little journey of your own to Richmond—to Miller & Rhoads—and we shall consider it a privilege to guide you from style to style, from section to section, throughout the big store, that you may see and know.

What's New in the World of FASHIONS

Frocks Naturally Come First for most of this season's affairs are "Frock" occasions.

The Crisply-Tailored Coat Frock of Piquette, with its snug hip drapes and decorative side fastening, is one of the smartest things for street wear, or shopping, while the Frock of velvet with a novel flare to its circular skirt is preferred for dressier functions.

Again it's the Crepe Frock for Afternoons! In Brown or Black with such details as twisted fabric, girdles, circular godets, lavish oriental embroidery, and the longer, more graceful skirt.

AUTUMN SUITS Have New Lines

Suits—Beautiful Enough for Brides, whether or not they enter trousseaux, are now numerous in our Women's Wear Salon. Picture to yourself the luxurious one that is a gray brocade Silk Frock, or a beautiful Navy three-piece Suit with the Frock's frills peeping from the wrap around skirt at will. Decorated with soft furs, they are indeed lovely to see.

Smartly severe tailors which are more practical and no less effective, are also available at quite moderate cost.

WRAPS Are Far Trimmed

—or not, as one prefers. In each kind variety in style and fabric is extensive.

The Cape Back is one of the new Coat Silhouettes MILLER & RHOADS are exhibiting, and the bloused Back is another. Sleeves of every fascinating type, including those with big fur cuffs that combine into muffs.

The Knock-About Coat, English as to its topping cut, is an item of style significance when made with soft, fleecy Woolen in large indistinct plaids, or good-looking outdoorsy Tweed.

GLANDS ARE NOT A PANACEA BUT HELP MANY HUMAN ILLS

WHAT ABOUT THESE GLAND CURES?
Is gland transplants the key to permanent health?
Every since Dr. L. L. Stanley, physician at San Quentin prison, announced that his experiments in such renewal of worn-out tissues were showing success, the world has been interested.
Gland cures were offered the public in a dozen different forms. Tablets, powders and tonics, supposedly containing vital glandular elements, were eagerly bought by the weak, the senile. Gland rejuvenation hospitals have started in a dozen places, and immense sums have been spent in the desperate attempt to stave off old age.
The world, seemingly, has expected miracles. But will such treatment truly accomplish wonders?
Jack Jungmeyer, NEA staff correspondent, went to the man who ought to know—Dr. Stanley. The results of his experiments—all in the interest of science—are told here in his own words, in order to clear the air of extravagant beliefs which leave the hopeful prey for quacks and swindlers.

(By JACK JUNGMEYER)
SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Oct. 2.—The biggest human laboratory for experiments in glandular rejuvenation is the California state prison, with its population of 2,500.

The first 1,000 implantations of animal glandular substance in human beings have been recently completed here, Dr. L. L. Stanley, resident physician and internationally known as a pioneer in this field.

Most of these cases were convicts who voluntarily subjected themselves to the simple operation.

At my request, Dr. Stanley consented to give NEA Service the results of his careful research in a conservative statement, to help clear the air of conflicting claims regarding this newest venture in renewing youth.

Investigation is being continued," said Dr. Stanley. "In the endeavor to ascertain the truth. Many obstacles, due to wild publicity and the unwarranted claims of medical buccaneers, must be overcome on this poorly charted sea of research.

"From the study of the 1,000 treatments here, it is believed that the substance injected does have a decided effect upon those who are underweight, lack energy, sleep poorly, have scant appetite, and are generally run down.

"Usually within the first week after treatment they gain weight, have increased appetite, enjoy their work and evince a general buoyancy.

"Of 326 patients so diagnosed, 305 have shown marked benefit.

"None of those so afflicted has become worse, but a few did not improve.

"In the 1,000 injections, animal substance was used on 656 human beings, mostly convicts, but including 95 free men, and 13 physicians and seven females.

"The substance, taken from dead goats, rams, hares and deer, was shredded and injected into the abdominal wall by means of a syringe.

"So far as has been observed there is little difference in effect produced from glands of various animals.

"Because all men here live under the same general conditions and patients can be under daily scrutiny, opportunity for observing results was ideal.

"Eleven of these patients are now dead. One is thought to have committed suicide. One died of uraemia, three of pneumonia, and six succumbed to advanced stage.

"Of 21 patients who were suffering from asthma, 18 secured relief or had the severity of their attacks greatly decreased. Whether the testicular substance has in it some inherent power like adrenalin to influence as-

"Three cases of the asthmatic patients found no relief.

"Of four cases of diabetes, three claimed improvement in weight and general conditions.

"Three cases of locomotor-taxis claimed that their pains lessened. Of course the disease was in no way arrested, but in some way it seems that there is some therapeutic agent influencing pain.

"Of 58 patients treated for rheumatism, 49 claim their pains stopped, while four found no difference, and five reported their condition slightly worse.

"Thirty-four men treated were senile. Twenty-seven showed improvement in energy, appetite and mental and physical activity.

"The results in tubercular cases were not particularly encouraging.

"Thirty-three of the 56 suffering from neurasthenia showed decided improvement. They gained in weight, felt fine and apparently forgot many of their fancied ailments.

"All physicians who took the treatment, with one exception, reported good results.

"Thirty-two of the 41 who had complained of poor vision, reported slight greatly strengthened.

RECONCILIATION IMPOSSIBLE SAYS MRS. STILLMAN

THREE RIVERS, Quebec, Sept. 30—There never can be reconciliation between herself and James A. Stillman, Mrs. Anna U. Stillman said on learning of the decision handed down yesterday in Carmel, N. Y., finding her son baby Guy Stillman legitimate and dismissing the charges of misconduct made against her by her husband.

Mrs. Stillman received the news of her victory from a correspondent of the Canadian press as she was hurrying by yacht down the St. Maurice from the Stillman camp at Grande-Anse to summon medical aid for Baby Guy who is said to be seriously ill.

"It is a victory of tears," she said, "so much pain for others; my father dead, my family hurt, and my children with a marked name."

Asked if a reconciliation might be possible, Mrs. Stillman replied: "There is a French word which will by my answer. 'Jamais' (Never)."

"There is no reconciliation," she said, "because the father of my son is dead. No real father could have hurt him so. It would not be fair. 'What do you think?'"

BOARDS WANTED
WANTED—GIRL BOARDS. Good location. Telephone 759-J. 10-2B 31t.

You intend to do in the case of an approach by agents of Mr. Stillman? she was asked. "I will leave to my own people the duty of dealing with them. Stupid tales were imagined to compromise my good name and to hurt me and my children. But, thank God, the simple and loyal people of Quebec were upholding the rights of all mothers and the spirit of the mothers gave me the strength to go through the dirt of the courts."

"I have received thousands of letters from mothers sending me their most precious encouragements. A man who does not acknowledge his own children is an 'outcast'. Mr. Stillman is not really as bad as we would think; he has been ill advised. I wanted to divorce him in Paris many times. I entreated him to part company with that girl Florence. He said once all right, you may have your divorce. But the case was not tried before the courts."

question to dispatch a letter to the League of Nations in which is outlined the Roman Catholic Church's viewpoint. As the chief interest of the Roman Catholic Church in the East is centered in Palestine, it is expected that the Pope will insist upon an alteration of Palestine's present condition, and also the maintenance of the status quo in the Orient. The document will renege upon the necessity for the prevention of war, expressing the Vatican's desire to co-operate in European reconstruction.

Danville Commercial College Enrollment Increasing
Although the school holidays only been a short time the enrollment at the Danville Commercial College is rapidly increasing. The Young Men's Business College was needed in Danville as a result of the fact that the school established here, and the results so far achieved justify their belief as to the need for such an institution. Thorough, practical courses equal to those offered by the best business colleges in the country, can now be had by the young men and women of Danville without leaving home. Many are availing themselves of the opportunity offered. 9-29 B2t 1mo

YOU HAVE ONE CHANCE IN A THOUSAND TO BE GREAT

The chance of anyone becoming great is one out of every 1000.

Billy has just been elected captain of the high school football team and you'll simply have to put him in your book.

Why haven't you got me in there? I'm an alderman from the tenth ward.

John over 90 has tied yards between 90 and 30 in the pursuit of glory.

Albert Nelson Marquis, whose blue pencil has chronicled the famous men and women of this country.

(By ROY GIBBONS.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—For 22 years, Albert Nelson Marquis and his faithful blue pencil have kept company in the editorial offices of the publication "Who's Who in America," here, of which he is editor, publisher and founder, presiding over the hopes of the hopes of the country's great and near great.

Today, after two decades of close observation, Marquis has come to the conclusion that there is no short cut to fame, but that glory goes only to him who works and waits.

"That's it," he said with a cheery smile, "fame is merely the reward of long perseverance and consistent accomplishment. Luck—I don't believe in it—and if there is such a thing it enters only remotely into the possibility of any man's chance of becoming famous."

The current edition of "Who's Who," which is published biennially, contains some 25,000 sketches, or biographical sketches of the nation's conspicuous citizens, who have achieved success in a particular field, or have been elected or appointed to high federal or state office.

From statistics he has compiled, Marquis estimates that the chance of anyone becoming great is one out of every 1000 of male population.

He also says that the ratio of eminence is greater in men who have passed their sixtieth birthday, and in women who have rounded the half-century mark.

As soon as a person dies his name is removed from "Who's Who." And the proud cognomen of officeholders are also given a funeral when the people who bear them pass into private life as the wheel of political fortune turns over.

No one who knows Marquis envies him his job. Each day he is called upon to placate scores of people who write demanding apologies, explanations and invitations to duels—with his own choice of weapons—for having omitted their names.

"Why haven't you got me in there?" demands one man. "I'm alderman from the Tenth Ward, and I bought a copy of your book on purpose expecting to find you'd at least given me honorable mention."

"Elly," as she called him, and the mother of two sons, sent in a long sketch of the oldest boy to Marquis lately, pointing out that "Who's Who" would lose a valuable contribution if the article wasn't printed.

"Elly" as she called him, "has just been elected captain of the high school football team, and you'll simply have to put him in your book."

Thousands seek it. I get thousands of communications. Marquis says, "and of course I can't print them. All our material is prepared from first-hand information supplied through questionnaires sent out of our own offices."

"We seldom use a voluntary biography. And even those that we request, often come in replete with high sounding phrases such as, 'I am one of the best known men in—city. My family is the largest collection of sires in the county.'"

"Usually we don't print panegyrics such as that either, but set the blue pencil to work and start boiling down."

Marquis thinks that men are just as egotistical as women when it comes to talking about themselves.

He is also confident that equal suffrage and the growing tendency of women to march more into the affairs of things will greatly aid them in bridging the disparity which has always existed between them and men in the number of figures before the public.

Here Are Requirements
Requires for admission a fancy name. "Who's Who," Marquis says, includes creditable personal endeavor in a recognized field of effort, or else an acknowledged and conspicuous place in a prominent office.

In the first class are artists, writers, singers, lecturers, philanthropists and business executives. In the second grouping automatically go the names of army and navy officers over a certain rank.

Ambassadors to foreign countries and members of the consular service included. Foreign singers and artists who make regular visits to America, and high government officers.

Investigators working under Marquis are constantly on the lookout for new names to add to the long list of famous ones. They are employed to read science papers and other manuscripts to see them leads.

More than 72 per cent of all names listed in the book are those of college graduates, which Marquis points out as a poignant argument in favor of higher education.

Marquis puts himself into print three years ago, at the urgent request of hundreds of subscribers, after having kept out for over 19 years.

But unlike others, who must tell their correct age as a requisite for admission, he refused to disclose his nearest birthday on the ground of editorial privilege.

"Whos Who," he says, "is not a social blue book, nor is it a financial record. It is merely intended to set forth briefly the essential facts about who is who."

Short Coat Again
Makes Appearance

Like all fashions, a bad penny, and the cat—the short coat has come back. Not quite as it was before, perhaps, but so much the better.

It is a banded short coat now and has a tight band about the hips. It has a high collar which is frequently covered with fur and it has wide sleeves also fur-edged. It is often heavily embroidered.

It is made of heavy soft fabrics, frequently metelasse. It may be part of a three-piece costume, but it may equally as well be sufficient to itself and have nothing to do either in material or color with the skirt that shows below it.

CONCERTS FOR AIRSHIPS
Atrahip passengers may now enjoy radio concerts. This has been tested out satisfactorily on the commercial passenger airplane from Geneva to Paris. A previous experiment on the Paris-London route failed.
